Conditions on the Use and Supply of the GTAP 9 Data Base

1. GTAP Data Package
   The GTAP 9 Data Base is a global data base consisting of regional input-output data, macroeconomic data, bilateral trade flows, protection and energy data for the 2004, 2007 and 2011 reference years. Full documentation on GTAP 9 Data Base is available on the GTAP website and given in:

   Global Trade, Assistance, and Production: The GTAP 9 Data Base, Center for Global Trade Analysis, Purdue University.

   The GTAP 9 Data Base contains:
   a. The GTAPAgg Package, which includes: a) the GTAPAgg program – a graphical user interface aggregation program for the GTAP Data Base, developed by Mark Horridge of the Centre of Policy Studies and b) an encrypted version of the GTAP Data Base global value flows file (basedata.hrx).

   b. The FlexAgg Package, which includes: a) the FlexAgg program – a command line aggregation program for the GTAP Data Base and b) the GTAP Data Base.

   The GTAPAgg program is made available with the understanding that the Center for Global Trade Analysis and the individual or organization to which the program is licensed, are jointly responsible for their installation and use. Both parties are jointly responsible for fixing any problems which might occur during installation or use of the program.

2. Definitions
   Associated program refer to the GTAPAgg program which accompany the GTAP Data Base and are covered by the conditions of this agreement.

   Owner refers to the legal owner of the GTAP Data Base and the associated program. The owner may be an individual or an organization.

   Licensee refers to the person to which the GTAP Data Base and associated program is licensed. This person must either be the legal owner of the GTAP Data Base and the associated program or be employed by the legal entity which is the owner. The licensee is responsible for the proper use of the license and must have the authority to sign these conditions on behalf of the owner. The licensee is also the contact person for any changes/bug fixes, and therefore must also be a user of the GTAP Data Base and the associated program.

   Any reference to data base refers to the GTAP 9 Data Base. The GTAP 9 Data Base includes all data (.har) files and all encrypted data (.hrx) files; and all interim releases of the GTAP 9 Data Base to which the person may be given access.

   Unless otherwise stated, Center refers to the Center for Global Trade Analysis, Purdue University.

3. License Types
The following license types are available:

a. Government/Private Sector User Licenses are available to users working in any capacity which is not a teaching college and/or university. These licenses may be shared with any number of users strictly within the licensee's designated department/division.

b. Library Academic User Licenses are restricted to users currently affiliated with a teaching college and/or university. These licenses may be shared with any number of users strictly within the licensee's designated college and/or university.

c. Multiple Academic User Licenses are restricted to users currently affiliated with a teaching college and/or university. These licenses may be shared with any number of users strictly within the licensee's designated department.

d. Single Academic User Licenses are restricted to a single user currently affiliated with a teaching college and/or university.

e. Data Contributor License: Ownership of a Data Contributor license is granted according to the conditions set out in the document "GTAP Policy on Input-Output Table and Dataset Contributors". These licenses are restricted to a single user, the licensee. Program may only be used by the licensee and may only be installed on the licensee's computer. Data Contributor Licenses are not upgradeable.

4. Conditions on the Use and Supply of the GTAP Data Base

a. The license is granted to the licensee who is responsible for the proper use of the license. The Center must be notified of any changes to the name and/or address of the licensee. If the licensee leaves the department/division, and the license is the property of the department/division, the licensee must contact the Center and transfer the license to someone else who is employed by the owner of the license.

b. The GTAP Data Base and associate program may only be used within the department/division (or by the person) to whom the software is supplied, and shall not be copied for use by other organizations or persons.

c. Acknowledgments of the GTAP 9 Data Base must be made by citing the reference listed above in section 1 whenever the GTAP 9 Data Base is used.

d. Licensees are free to make changes to the GTAP Data Base and the associated program but at no time shall the modified Data Base become the property of the licensee.

e. Licensees are free to distribute small aggregations or RunGTAP applications for joint work or teaching purposes. However, the licensee must obtain permission from the Center for the distribution of large aggregations. A large aggregation is defined as one in which there are more than 10 regions or more than 10 commodities.

f. The Center for Global Trade Analysis makes no guarantees that the GTAP Data Base, associated program, and the documentation are free from error, or are consistent with the standard of merchantability, or that they will meet the licensees requirements for any particular application.

g. Licensees are responsible for the installation of the GTAP Data Base and the associated program, their use, and for the results obtained. The Center for Global Trade Analysis disclaims all liability for direct, incidental, or consequential damages resulting from the licensee's use of the GTAP Data Base, the associated program or the documentation.

h. GTAP Data Base technical support, bug fixes, and updates are not guaranteed by the Center.

i. By using the GTAP Data Base, the licensee acknowledges and agrees to abide by the IEA's standard terms and conditions and disclaimer provisions for IEA Material as incorporated in the GTAP Data Base. http://www.iea.org/t&c/termsandconditions/

j. By placing the order for the GTAP Data Base, the licensee has acknowledged and agreed to all above terms and conditions.
